

ARIZONA
FALLS
PREVENTION
COALITION
Our Calling is to Prevent Falling™

Arizona Falls Prevention Coalition 2022 Awards Nomination Criteria

Dear fellow AFPC Member:

This is your opportunity to recognize someone for their work in the area of Fall Prevention. Please read over the information below and begin your nomination of an individual or organization that you deem worthy of this honor. You may self-nominate, choose someone from your organization or nominate someone whose reputation you admire for their service to fall prevention. Awards are not limited to AFPC members and are judged solely on their merit within each category.

AWARD NOMINATION CATEGORIES

INDIVIDUALS

- Research and Science
- Education
- Home Safety
- Exercise/Teaching
- Promotion
- Outstanding contribution to the AFPC

ORGANIZATIONS

- Most innovative program
  - Most successful statewide program
  - Most successful regional program
  - Most successful city-wide program
- ("Success" based upon number of individuals participating annually)

Revised September 16, 2021

ARIZONA
FALLS
PREVENTION
COALITION
Our Calling is to Prevent Falling™

NOMINATION PROCESS (DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT: WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 2022)

Can be done online or by email or mail

Must contain the following information:

1. Full name, phone number and email of nominated person or organization
2. Category of the nomination (see above list)
3. Rationale for the nomination
4. Collateral materials are optional but will enhance the nomination as evidence of the worthiness of the nomination (flyers, brochures, papers, videos etc.)
5. Your name, phone number and email.

SEND TO :

Irene Stillwell, AFPC Awards Committee Chair

P.O. Box 33278

Phoenix, AZ 85067-3278

afpcawardschair@gmail.com ( please put "AFPC AWARDS" in the subject line )

For questions call: 602-697-7349

Revised September 16, 2021